

International Webinar under the auspices of the International Knowledge Fair, Bucharest University of Economic Studies, 22 November 2022
Guest Speaker: Prof.Dr. André Torre

This international webinar was supported by the Romanian RSA in cooperation with the ERSA, took place on 12 May 2022, being virtually hosted by the Bucharest University of Economic Studies – Faculty of Administration and Public Management, under the auspices of the International Knowledge of this university. The guest speaker was Prof.Dr. André Torre from the Paris-Saclay University and INRAE, Agroparistech, the ERSA President, who delivered the presentation entitled “The contribution of circular economy to territorial sustainable development: employment contributions”. The presentation attracted a large interest, an important number of participants - academics, researchers, PhD students, MA and BA students - attending the meeting.